

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Carl Emil Loriks has served the people of South Dakota and the United States with great distinction; and,

WHEREAS, Emil's accomplishments include the founding of the national Farm Holiday Movement, the original organizing of the Farmers Union in South Dakota, the passage of the state's first gold tax and the reduction of state government expenditures by 25% during the first years of the Great Depression; and,

WHEREAS, Emil has been a distinguished leader in South Dakota and America as a state legislator, as the co-chairman of the legislature's appropriations committee, as the administrator of the federal farm program in South Dakota, as a member of the South Dakota Railroad Commission, and as President of the GTA, the largest grain terminal association in the world; and,

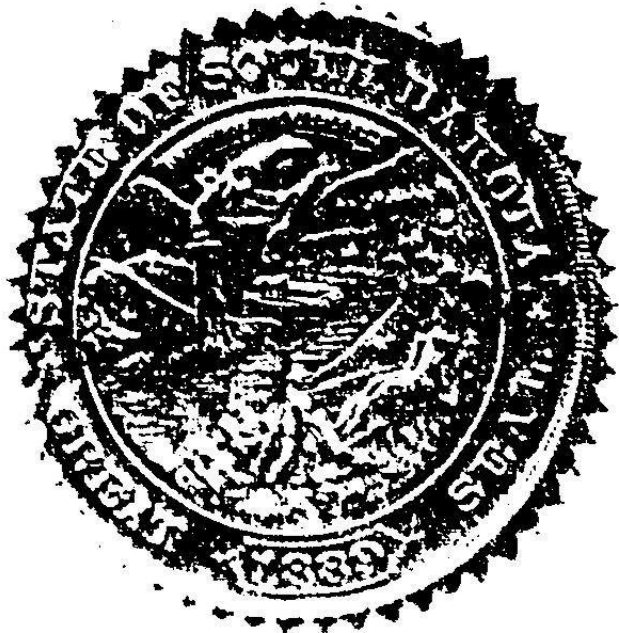

WHEREAS, the people of Oldham, South Dakota, will be honoring Emil for his many accomplishments with an open house on September 30, 1984; and,

WHEREAS, Emil was previously honored with an Emil Loriks Day on October 2, 1982:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 30 through October 6, 1984, as

EMIL LORIKS WEEK
